Conducted independently; not an official Brunel University London project.

Request: A dark, philosophical conscious-trap and spiritual-drill track at 138 BPM in D minor with deep sliding 808s, crisp trap drums, slow echoing dark piano, bansuri flute, haunting ambient pads, mystical bell plucks, low cinematic strings and a subtle low choir. It opens with pads and flute, the full beat drops at the hook, strings add intensity in the second verse, the drums strip away for the bridge, the final hook hits at full power with the choir, and it fades out on flute and pads.
